To Whom It May Concern:

The Consumer Product Safety Improvement Act (CPSIA) of 2008 established new regulations governing the safety of consumer products. The materials published by Educational Activities, Inc. fall into the category of “Children’s Products.”

Our products are compliant with the current regulations of the CPSIA. Our products have been tested for lead and are below 30ppm (well below the limit of 300 ppm per the August 14, 2009 requirement).

All products manufactured on or after August 14, 2009 have tracking information.

Certificates of Compliance (CoC) for our products are available online at www.edact.com/safety.html . We will also be happy to email, fax or send CoCs for any of our products.

For over 60 years, Educational Activities, Inc. has been supplying the education market with high quality CDs, DVDs, books and other school-based materials. We are dedicated to providing safe products and we will continue to provide high-quality products both in terms of their educational content as well as in the materials used in manufacturing them.

If you have any questions regarding the safety of our products, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Carol Stern
President
